Privacy Policy for www.bossplay.com

[Last updated: August 1, 2021]

This Privacy Policy describes BP Features, LLC ("we", "our" and forms thereof) policies and procedures regarding the collection, use and disclosure of your information when you use www.bossplay.com ("Website" or "Service") and tells you about your privacy rights and how the law protects you.

We use your Personal data to provide and improve our Website and Service. By using the Boss PlaySM Website, you agree to the collection and use of information in accordance with this Privacy Policy.

Interpretation and Definitions

Interpretation

Words which are defined in our "Terms and Conditions for All Users" (which you can find at www.bossplay.com/support) have the same meaning here.

Definitions

For purposes of this Privacy Policy:

- "Account" means a unique account created for you to access our Service or parts of our Service.
- "Business", for purposes of the CCPA (California Consumer Privacy Act), refers to the legal entity that collects your personal information and determines the purposes and means of processing your personal information, or on behalf of which such information is collected and that alone, or jointly with others, determines the purposes and means of the processing of your personal information, and that does business in the State of California USA.
- "Company" (referred to as "Company", "we", "us" or "our", and forms thereof, in this Agreement) means BP Features, LLC, a Oklahoma, USA limited liability company. For purposes of the GDPR (the EU's "General Data Protection Regulation"), the Company is the "Data Controller".
- "Consumer", for purposes of the CCPA, means a natural person who is a California resident. A resident, as defined in the law, includes (1) every individual who is in California for other than a temporary or transitory purpose, and (2) every individual who is domiciled in California USA but who is outside of that state for a temporary or transitory purpose.
- "Cookies" are small files that are placed on your computer, mobile device or any other device by a website, containing the details of your browsing history on that website, among its many uses.
- "Country" refers to: United States of America
- "Data Controller", for purposes of the EU's GDPR (General Data Protection Regulation), refers to the Company as the legal entity which alone, or jointly with others, determines the purposes and means of processing your Personal Data.
- "Device" means any device that can access the Service, such as a computer, a cellphone or a digital tablet.

- "Do Not Track" (DNT) is a concept that has been promoted by USA regulatory authorities, in particular the U.S. Federal Trade Commission (FTC), for the Internet industry to develop and implement a mechanism for allowing Internet users to control the tracking of their online activities.
- "Personal Data" is any information that relates to an identified or identifiable individual. For purposes for the GDPR, "Personal Data" means any information relating to you -- such as your name, an identification number, location data, online identifier, or to one or more factors specific to your physical, physiological, genetic, mental, economic, cultural or social identity. For purposes of the CCPA, "Personal Data" means any information that identifies, relates to, describes or is capable of reasonably being associated with you.
- "Sale", for purposes of the CCPA, means selling, renting, releasing, disclosing, disseminating, making available, transferring, or otherwise communicating orally, in writing, or by electronic or other means, a consumer's personal information to another business or a third party for monetary or other valuable consideration.
- "Service" refers to the Website at www.bossplay.com.
- "Service Provider" means any natural or legal person who processes your data on behalf of the Company. It refers to third-party companies or individuals employed by the Company to facilitate the Service, to provide the Service on behalf of the Company, to perform services related to the Website or to assist the Company in analyzing how the Website is used. For purposes of the GDPR, Service Providers are considered "Data Processors".
- "Third-party Social Media Service" refers to any website or any social network website through which a user can log in or create an account to use our Service.
- "Usage Data" refers to data collected automatically, either generated by the use of the Website or from the Website's infrastructure itself (for example, the duration of a page visit).
- "Website" refers to www.bossplay.com
- "You" means the individual accessing or using the Website, or the company or other legal entity on behalf of which that individual is accessing or using the Website, as applicable. Under the GDPR, you can be referred to as the "Data Subject" or as the "User", since you are the individual using the Service.

Collecting and using your Personal Data

Types of Data Collected

Personal Data

While using our Website, we may ask you to provide us with certain personally identifiable information that can be used to contact or identify you. Personally identifiable information may include, but is not limited to:

- Email address
- First name and last name
- Phone number
- Address, State, Province, ZIP/Postal code, City, Country
- Usage Data

Usage Data

Usage Data is collected automatically when using the Website.

Usage Data may include information such as your Device's Internet Protocol address (i.e., IP address), browser type, browser version, the pages of our Website that you visit, the time and date of your visit, the time spent on those pages, unique device identifiers and other diagnostic data.

When you access the Website by or through a mobile device, we may collect certain information automatically, including but not limited to the type of mobile device you use, your mobile device's unique ID, the IP address of your mobile device, your mobile operating system, the type of mobile Internet browser you use, unique device identifiers and other diagnostic data.

We may also collect information that your browser sends whenever you visit our Service or when you access the Service by or through a mobile device.

Tracking Technologies and Cookies

We use Cookies and similar tracking technologies to track the activity on our Website and store certain information. Tracking technologies used are beacons, tags, and scripts to collect and track information and to improve and analyze our Service. The technologies we use may include:

- "Cookies" or "Browser Cookies". A "Cookie" is a small file placed on your Device. You can instruct your browser to refuse all Cookies or to indicate when a Cookie is being sent. However, if you do not accept Cookies, you may not be able to use some parts of our Website. Unless you have adjusted your browser setting so that it will refuse Cookies, our Service may use Cookies.
- "Flash Cookies". Certain features of our Website may use local stored objects (or "Flash Cookies") to collect and store information about your preferences or your activity while on our Service. Flash Cookies are not managed by the same browser settings as those used for Browser Cookies. For more information on how you can delete Flash Cookies, please read "Where can I change the settings for disabling, or deleting local shared objects?", which is available at https://helpx.adobe.com/flash-player/kb/disable-local-shared-objects.flash.html#main_Where_can_I_change_the_settings_for_disabling__or_deleting_local_shared_objects_
- "Web Beacons". Certain sections of our Website and our emails may contain small electronic files known as web beacons (also referred to as clear gifs, pixel tags, and single-pixel gifs) that permit the Company, for example, to count users who have visited Website pages or opened an email and for other related Website statistics (for example, recording the popularity of a certain section, or verifying system and server integrity).

Cookies can be "Persistent" or "Session" Cookies. Persistent Cookies remain on your personal computer or mobile device when you go offline, while Session Cookies are deleted as soon as you close your web browser.

We use both Session and Persistent Cookies for these purposes:

- Necessary / Essential Cookies

Type: Session Cookies

Administered by: Us

Purpose: These Cookies are essential to provide you with services available through the Website and to enable you to use some of its features. They help to authenticate users and prevent fraudulent use of user accounts. Without these Cookies, the services that you have asked for cannot be provided, and we use these Cookies only to provide you with those services.

- Cookies Policy / Notice Acceptance Cookies

Type: Persistent Cookies

Administered by: Us

Purpose: These Cookies identify if users have accepted the use of Cookies on the Website.

- Functionality Cookies

Type: Persistent Cookies

Administered by: Us

Purpose: These Cookies allow us to remember choices you make when you use the Website, such as remembering your login details or language preference. The purpose of these Cookies is to provide you with a more personal experience and to avoid your having to re-enter your preferences every time you use the Website.

Use of your Personal Data

The Company may use Personal Data for the following purposes:

- To provide and maintain our Service, including monitoring the usage of our Service.
- To manage your Account: to manage your registration as a user of the Service. The Personal Data you provide can give you access to different functionalities of the Website that are available to you as a registered User.
- For the performance of a contract: the development, compliance and undertaking of the purchase contract for products, items or services you have purchased or of any other contract with us through the Service.
- To contact you: To contact you by email, telephone calls, SMS, or other equivalent forms of electronic communication, such as a mobile application's "push notifications" regarding updates or informative communications related to the functionalities, products or contracted services, including the security updates, when necessary or reasonable for their implementation.
- To provide you with news, special offers and general information about other goods, services and events which we offer that are similar to those that you have already purchased or inquired about unless you have opted not to receive such information.
- To manage your requests: To attend to and manage your requests to us.
- For business transfers: we may use your information to evaluate or conduct a merger, divestiture, restructuring, reorganization, dissolution, or other sale or transfer of some or all of our assets, whether as a going concern or as part of bankruptcy, liquidation, or similar proceeding, in which Personal Data held by us about our Website users is among the assets transferred or to be transferred.
- For other purposes: We may use your information for other purposes, such as data analysis, identifying usage trends, determining the effectiveness of our promotional campaigns and to evaluate and improve our Website, products, services, marketing and your experience.

We may share your personal information in the following situations:

- With Service Providers: we may share your personal information with Service Providers to monitor and analyze the use of our Service, for payment processing, or to contact you.
- For business transfers: we may share or transfer your personal information in connection with, or during negotiations of, any merger, sale of Company assets, financing, or acquisition of all or a portion of our business to another company.
- With Affiliates: we may share your information with our Affiliates, in which case we will require those Affiliates to honor this Privacy Policy. "Affiliates" include our parent company, if any, any subsidiary, joint venture partners or other companies that we control or that are under common control with us.
- With our business partners: We may share your information with our business partners to offer you certain products, services or promotions.
- With other Users: When you share personal information or otherwise interact with other Users, such information may be viewed by all Users and may be publicly distributed. If you interact with other users or register through a Third-Party Social Media Service, your contacts on the Third-Party Social Media Service may see your name, profile, pictures and description of your activity. Similarly, other Users will be able to view descriptions of your activity, communicate with you and view your profile.

- With your consent: we may disclose your personal information for any other purpose with your consent.

Retention of your Personal Data

The Company will retain your Personal Data for only as long as necessary for the purposes set out in this Privacy Policy. We will retain and use your Personal Data to the extent necessary to comply with our legal obligations (for example, if we are required to retain your data to comply with applicable laws), resolve disputes, and enforce our legal agreements and policies.

The Company will also retain usage Data for internal analysis purposes. Usage Data is generally retained for a shorter period of time, except when these data are used to strengthen the security or to improve the functionality of our Website, or we are legally obligated to retain the data for longer time periods.

Transfer of your Personal Data

Your information, including Personal Data, is processed at the Company's operating office and in any other places where processing is conducted. It means that this information may be transferred to — and maintained on — computers located outside of your state, province, country or other governmental jurisdiction where the data protection laws may differ from those in your jurisdiction. Your consent to this Privacy Policy followed by your submission of such information represents your agreement to that transfer.

The Company will take all steps reasonably necessary to ensure that your data is treated securely and in accordance with this Privacy Policy, and that no transfer of your Personal Data will take place to an organization or a country unless there are adequate controls in place, including the security of your data and other personal information.

Disclosure of Your Personal Data

Business Transactions

If the Company is involved in a merger, acquisition or asset sale, your Personal Data may be transferred. We will provide notice before your Personal Data is transferred and becomes subject to a different Privacy Policy.

Law enforcement

Under certain circumstances, the Company may be required to disclose your Personal Data if required to do so by law or in response to valid requests by public authorities (e.g., a court or a government agency).

Other legal requirements

The Company may disclose your Personal Data in the good faith belief that such action is necessary to:

- Comply with a legal obligation
- Protect and defend the rights or property of the Company
- Prevent or investigate possible wrongdoing in connection with the Service
- Protect the personal safety of Users of the Website (including you) or of the public
- Protect against legal liability

Security of your Personal Data

The security of your Personal Data is important to us, but remember that no method of transmission over the Internet, or method of electronic storage, is 100% secure. While we strive to use commercially acceptable means to protect your Personal Data, we cannot guarantee its absolute security.

Detailed Information on the Processing of your Personal Data

The Service Providers we use may have access to your Personal Data. These third-party vendors collect, store, use, process and transfer information about your activity on our Website in accordance with their own Privacy Policies.

Your Payments

We may offer paid products and/or services within the Website. In that case, we may use third-party services for payment processing. We will not store or collect your payment card details. That information is provided directly to our third-party payment processors, whose use of your personal information is governed by their own Privacy Policy. These payment processors adhere to the standards set by PCI-DSS as managed by the PCI Security Standards Council, which is a joint effort of brands like Visa, Mastercard, American Express and Discover. PCI-DSS requirements help insure the secure handling of payment information.

GDPR Privacy

Legal Basis for Processing Personal Data under GDPR

We may process Personal Data under the following conditions:

- Consent: you have given your consent for processing Personal Data for one or more specific purposes.
- Performance of a contract: Provision of Personal Data is necessary for the performance of an agreement with you and/or for any pre-contractual obligations thereof.
- Legal obligations: Processing Personal Data is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which the Company is subject.
- Vital interests: Processing Personal Data is necessary in order to protect your vital interests or those of another natural person.
- Public interest: Processing Personal Data is related to a task that is carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the Company.
- Legitimate interests: Processing Personal Data is necessary for the purposes of the legitimate interests of the Company.

In any case, the Company will gladly help to clarify the specific legal basis that applies to the processing, and in particular whether the provision of Personal Data is a statutory or contractual requirement, or a requirement necessary to enter into a contract.

Your Rights under the GDPR

The Company undertakes to respect the confidentiality of your Personal Data and to guarantee you can exercise your rights. You have the right under this Privacy Policy, and by law if you are within the EU, to:

- Request access to your Personal Data. The right to access, update or delete the information we have about you. Whenever made possible, you can access, update or request deletion of your Personal Data directly within your account settings section. If you are unable to perform these actions yourself, please contact us to assist you. This also enables you to receive a copy of the Personal Data we hold about you.
- Request correction of the Personal Data that we hold about you. You have the right to have any incomplete or inaccurate information we hold about you corrected.
- Object to processing of your Personal Data. This right exists where we are relying on a legitimate interest as the legal basis for our processing, and there is something about your particular situation which makes you want to object to our processing of your Personal Data on this ground. You also have the right to object where we are processing your Personal Data for direct marketing purposes.
- Request erasure of your Personal Data. You have the right to ask us to delete or remove Personal Data when there is no good reason for us to continue processing it.
- Request the transfer of your Personal Data. We will provide to you, or to a third-party you have chosen, your Personal Data in a structured, commonly used, machine-readable format. Please note that this right applies only to automated information which you initially consented for us to use or where we used the information to perform a contract with you.
- Withdraw your consent. You have the right to withdraw your consent to our using your Personal Data. If you withdraw your consent, however, we may not be able to provide you with access to certain specific functionalities of the Website.

Exercising your GDPR Data Protection Rights

You may exercise your rights of access, rectification, cancellation and opposition by contacting us at support@bossplay.com. Please note that we may ask you to verify your identity before responding to such requests. If you make a request, we will try our best to respond to you as soon as possible.

You have the right to complain to a Data Protection Authority about our collection and use of your Personal Data. For more information, if you are in the European Economic Area (EEA), please contact your local data protection authority in the EEA.

CCPA Privacy

This privacy notice section for California residents supplements the information contained in our Privacy Policy, and it applies solely to visitors, Users, Creators, Consumers and others who reside in the State of California USA.

Categories of Personal Information Collected

We collect information that identifies, relates to, describes, references, is capable of being associated with, or could reasonably be linked, directly or indirectly, with a particular Consumer or Device. The following is a list of categories of personal information which we may collect or may be collected from California residents.

Please note that the categories and examples provided in the list below are those defined in the CCPA. This does not mean that all examples of that category of personal information were in fact collected by us, but reflects our good faith belief, to the best of our knowledge, that some information from the applicable category may have been collected. For example, certain categories of personal information would be collected only if you provided such personal information directly to us.

- Category A: Identifiers.

Examples: A real name, alias, postal address, unique personal identifier, online identifier, Internet Protocol address, email address, account name, driver's license number, passport number, or other similar identifiers.

- Category B: Personal information categories listed in the California Customer Records statute (Cal. Civ. Code § 1798.80(e)).

Examples: A name, signature, Social Security number, physical characteristics or description, address, telephone number, passport number, driver's license or state identification card number, insurance policy number, education, employment, employment history, bank account number, credit card number, debit card number, or any other financial information, medical information, or health insurance information. Some personal information included in this category may overlap with other categories.

- Category C: Protected classification characteristics under California or USA federal law.

Examples: Age (40 years or older), race, color, ancestry, national origin, citizenship, religion or creed, marital status, medical condition, physical or mental disability, sex (including gender, gender identity, gender expression, pregnancy or childbirth and related medical conditions), sexual orientation, veteran or military status, genetic information (including familial genetic information).

Category D: Commercial information.

Examples: Records and history of products or services purchased or considered.

- Category E: Biometric information.

Examples: Genetic, physiological, behavioral, and biological characteristics, or activity patterns used to extract a template or other identifier or identifying information, such as, fingerprints, faceprints, voiceprints, iris or retina scans, keystroke, gait, or other physical patterns, and sleep, health, or exercise data.

- Category F: Internet or other similar network activity.

Examples: Interaction with our Website or advertisement.

- Category G: Geolocation data.

Examples: Approximate physical location.

- Category H: Sensory data.

Examples: Audio, electronic, visual, thermal, olfactory, or similar information.

- Category I: Professional or employment-related information.

Examples: Current or past job history or performance evaluations.

Category J: Non-public education information (per the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (20 U.S.C. Section 1232g, 34 C.F.R. Part 99)).

Examples: Education records directly related to a student maintained by an educational institution or party acting on its behalf, such as grades, transcripts, class lists, student schedules, student identification codes, student financial information, or student disciplinary records.

- Category K: Inferences drawn from other personal information.

Examples: Profile reflecting a person's preferences, characteristics, psychological trends, predispositions, behavior, attitudes, intelligence, abilities, and aptitudes.

Under CCPA, personal information does not include:

- Publicly available information from government records
- "De-identified" or aggregated consumer information
- Information excluded from the CCPA's scope, such as: Health or medical information covered by the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA), the California Confidentiality of Medical Information Act (CMIA), or clinical trial data
- Personal Information covered by certain sector-specific privacy laws, including the Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA), the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act (GLBA) or California Financial Information Privacy Act (FIPA), and the Driver's Privacy Protection Act of 1994.

Sources of Personal Information

We obtain the categories of personal information listed above from the following categories of sources:

- Directly from you. For example, from the forms you complete on our Website, preferences you express or provide through our Website, or from your purchases on our Website.
- Indirectly from you. For example, from observing your activity on our Website.
- Automatically from you. For example, through Cookies we or our Service Providers set on your Device as you navigate through our Website.
- From Service Providers. For example, third-party vendors for payment processing, or other third-party vendors that we use to provide our Service to you.

Our Use of Personal Information for Business or Commercial Purposes

We may use or disclose personal information we collect for "business purposes" or "commercial purposes" (as defined under the CCPA), which may include the following examples:

- To operate our Website and provide you with our Service.
- To provide you with support and to respond to your inquiries, including to investigate and address your concerns and monitor and improve our Service.
- To fulfill or meet the reason you provided the information. For example, if you share your contact information to ask a question about our Website, we will use that personal information to respond to your inquiry. If you provide your personal information to purchase a product or service, we will use that information to process your payment and facilitate delivery.
- To respond to law enforcement requests and as required by applicable law, court order, or governmental regulations.
- As described to you when collecting your personal information or as otherwise set forth in the CCPA.
- For internal administrative and auditing purposes.
- To detect security incidents and protect against malicious, deceptive, fraudulent or illegal activity, including, when necessary, to prosecute those responsible for such activities.

Please note that the examples provided above are illustrative and not intended to be exhaustive.

If we decide to collect additional categories of personal information or use the personal information we collect for materially different, unrelated, or incompatible purposes, we will update this Privacy Policy.

Our Disclosure of Personal Information for Business or Commercial Purposes

We may use or disclose and/or may have used or disclosed the following categories of personal information for business or commercial purposes:

- Category A: Identifiers
- Category B: Personal information categories listed in the California Customer Records statute (Cal. Civ. Code § 1798.80(e))
- Category D: Commercial information
- Category F: Internet or other similar network activity

Please note that the categories listed above are those defined in the CCPA. This listing does not mean that examples of that category of personal information were in fact disclosed, but reflects our good faith belief to the best of our knowledge that some of that information from the applicable category may be and/or may have been disclosed.

When we disclose personal information for a business purpose or a commercial purpose, we enter into contracts that describe the purpose and require the recipient both to keep that personal information confidential and not use it for any purpose except performing the contract.

Sale of Your Information

As defined in the CCPA (California), "sell" and "sale" mean selling, renting, releasing, disclosing, disseminating, making available, transferring, or otherwise communicating orally, in writing, or by electronic or other means, a consumer's personal information by the business to a third party for valuable consideration. This means that we have received some kind of benefit in return for sharing your personal information, but not necessarily a monetary benefit.

Please note that the categories listed below are those defined in the CCPA. This listing does not mean that examples of that category of personal information were in fact sold, but reflects our good faith belief to the best of our knowledge that some of the information from the applicable category may be and/or may have been shared for value in return.

We may sell and/or may have sold the following categories of personal information:

- Category A: Identifiers
- Category B: Personal information categories listed in the California Customer Records statute (Cal. Civ. Code § 1798.80(e))
- Category D: Commercial information
- Category E: Internet or other similar network activity

Sharing Your Personal Information

We may share your personal information identified in the above categories with the following categories of third parties:

- Service Providers
- Payment processors
- Our Affiliates
- Our business partners

- Third-party vendors to whom you or your agents authorize us to disclose your personal information

Sale of Personal Information of Minors Under 18 Years of Age

We do not knowingly collect personal information from minors under the age of 18 through our Service, although certain third party websites that we link to may do so. These third-party websites have their own terms of use and privacy policies, and we encourage parents and legal guardians to monitor their children's Internet usage and instruct their children never to provide information on this or any other websites without your permission.

If you have reason to believe that a person under the age of 18 has provided us with personal information, please contact us (support@bossplay.com) with sufficient detail to enable us to delete that information. Since use of our Website is restricted to those above eighteen (18) years of age, Boss PlaySM should have no such information. Users may be required to demonstrate proof of their over-18 status upon our request.

Your Rights under the CCPA

The CCPA provides California residents with specific rights regarding their personal information. If you are a resident of California, you have the following rights:

- The right to notice. You have the right to be notified which categories of Personal Data are being collected and the purposes for which the Personal Data are being used.
- The right to request. Under CCPA, you have the right to request that we disclose information to you about our collection, use, sale, disclosure for business purposes and sharing of personal information. Once we receive and confirm your request, we will disclose to you:
 - The categories of personal information we collected about you
 - The categories of sources for the personal information we collected about you
 - Our business or commercial purpose for collecting or selling that personal information
 - The categories of third parties with whom we share that personal information
 - The specific pieces of personal information we collected about you

If we sold your personal information or disclosed your personal information for a business purpose, we will disclose to you:

- The categories of personal information sold
- The categories of personal information disclosed
- The right to say no to the sale of Personal Data ("opt-out"). You have the right to direct us not to sell your personal information. To submit an opt-out request please contact us.
- The right to delete Personal Data. You have the right to request the deletion of your Personal Data, subject to certain exceptions. Once we receive and confirm your request, we will delete (and direct our Service Providers to delete) your personal information from our records, unless an exception applies.

We may deny your deletion request if retaining the information is necessary for us or our Service Providers to:

- Complete the transaction for which we collected the personal information, provide a good or service that you requested, take actions reasonably anticipated within the context of our ongoing business relationship with you, or otherwise perform our contract (i.e., our "Terms and Conditions for All Users") with you.

- Detect security incidents, protect against malicious, deceptive, fraudulent, or illegal activity, or prosecute those responsible for such activities.
- Debug products to identify and repair errors that impair existing intended functionality.
- Exercise free speech, ensure the right of another consumer to exercise his/her free speech rights, or exercise another right provided for by law.
- Comply with the California Electronic Communications Privacy Act (Cal. Penal Code § 1546 et. seq.).
- Engage in public or peer-reviewed scientific, historical, or statistical research in the public interest that adheres to all other applicable ethics and privacy laws, when you previously provided informed consent, and the information's deletion may likely render impossible or seriously impair the research's goals.
- Enable solely internal uses that are reasonably aligned with consumer expectations based on your relationship with us.
- Comply with a legal obligation.
- Make other internal and lawful uses of that information that are compatible with the context in which you provided it.
- The right not to be discriminated against. You have the right not to be discriminated against for exercising any of your consumer rights, including by:
 - Denying goods or services to you
 - Charging different prices or rates for goods or services, including the use of different discounts or other benefits, or imposing penalties
 - Providing a different level or quality of goods or services to you
 - Suggesting that you will receive a different price or rate for goods or services or a different level or quality of goods or services

Exercising your CCPA Data Protection Rights

In order to exercise any of your rights under the CCPA if you are a California resident, you can contact us:

- By email: support@bossplay.com
- By visiting this page on our website: www.bossplay.com/support.

Only you, or a person registered with the California Secretary of State that you authorize to act on your behalf, may make a verifiable request related to your personal information.

Your request to us must:

- Provide sufficient information that allows us reasonably to verify you are the person about whom we collected personal information
- Describe your request with detail sufficient to allow us properly to understand, evaluate, and respond to it

We cannot respond to your request or provide you with the required information if we cannot:

- Verify your identity or authority to make the request, and
- Confirm that the personal information relates to you

We will disclose and deliver the required information free of charge within 45 days of receiving your verifiable request. The time period to provide the required information may be extended once by an additional 45 days when reasonably necessary and with prior notice.

Any disclosures we provide will cover only the 12-month period preceding the verifiable request's receipt.

For data portability requests, we will select a format to provide your personal information that is readily useable and should allow you to transmit the information from one entity to another without hindrance.

"Do Not Sell My Personal Information"

You have the right to opt-out of the sale of your personal information. Once we receive and confirm a verifiable consumer request from you, we will stop selling your personal information. To exercise your right to opt-out, please contact us at support@bossplay.com.

"Do Not Track" Policy as Required by California Online Privacy Protection Act (CalOPPA)

Our Service does not respond to Do Not Track signals.

However, some third-party websites do keep track of your browsing activities. If you are visiting such websites, you can set your preferences in your web browser to inform websites that you do not want to be tracked. You can enable or disable DNT by visiting the preferences or settings page of your web browser.

Children's Privacy

Our Service does not address anyone under the age of 18. We do not knowingly collect personally identifiable information from anyone under the age of 18. If you are a parent or guardian and you are aware that your child has provided us with Personal Data, please contact us at support@bossplay.com. If we become aware that we have collected Personal Data from anyone under the age of 18 without verification of parental consent, we take steps to remove that information from our servers.

Since use of our Website is restricted to those above eighteen (18) years of age, Boss PlaySM should have no information about any minor. Users may be required to demonstrate proof of their over-18 status upon our request.

Your California Privacy Rights (California's "Shine the Light" law)

Under California Civil Code Section 1798 (California's "Shine the Light" law), California residents with an established business relationship with us can request information once a year about sharing their Personal Data with third parties for the third parties' direct marketing purposes.

If you'd like to request more information under the California Shine the Light law, and if you are a California resident, you can contact us at support@bossplay.com.

California Business and Professions Code section 22581 allows California residents under the age of 18 who are registered users of online websites, services or applications to request and obtain removal of content or information they have publicly posted. To request removal of such data if you are a California resident, you can contact us using the contact information provided below, and include the email address associated with your account. Be aware that your request does not guarantee complete or comprehensive removal of content or information posted online, and that the law may not permit or require removal in certain circumstances.

If You Are A Nevada Resident

Nevada law permits Users who are Nevada residents to request that their personal data not be sold (as defined under applicable Nevada law), even if their personal data is not currently being sold. Requests from Nevada residents may be sent to support@bossplay.com, and are free of charge.

Links to Other Websites

Our Service may contain links to other websites that are not operated by us. If you click on a third party link, you will be directed to that third party's site. We strongly advise you to review the Privacy Policy of every website you visit. We have no control over and assume no responsibility for the content, privacy policies or practices of any third-party sites or services.

This Privacy Notice is subject to our "Terms and Conditions for All Users" and our "Acceptable Use Policy", which govern your use of our Services. This Privacy Policy applies regardless of the means used to access or provide information through the Services.

This Privacy Notice does not apply to information from or about you collected by any third-party services, applications, or advertisements associated with, or websites linked from, the Services. The collection or receipt of your information by such third parties is subject to their own privacy policies, statements, and practices, and under no circumstances are we responsible or liable for any third party's compliance therewith.

Changes to this Privacy Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. We will notify you of any changes by posting the new Privacy Policy on this page.

We will let you know via email and/or a prominent notice on our Service, prior to the change becoming effective, and update the "Last updated" date at the top of this Privacy Policy.

You are urged to review this Privacy Policy periodically for any changes. Changes to this Privacy Policy are effective when they are posted on this page.
